FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.

Trolley Car Filled With Excursionists Jumps From the Track.

PLUNGES INTO A MILLPOND.

Twenty-Nine Persons Killed and a Dozen More Dangerously Injured—Coroner Investigating the Disaster.

Bridgeport, Conn., Aug. 7.—An open trolley car of the Shelton Extension company, twisted, bent and smashed almost into kindling wood, lying in the middle of Peck's millpond at Orono, about six miles north of here, is the only visible indication of the frightful accident of Sunday afternoon, when 2 lives were lost and about a dozen people were seriously injured from the car tumbling off the trestle which crosses the pond at this point.

Coroner Dolen is making arrangements to conduct an immediate investigation into the cause of the disaster.

The cause of the accident is the chief topic of conversation, and all kinds of theories have been advanced and discussed.

Engineer W. W. Starr, who superintended the building of the bridge, said that the bridge was perfectly safe in every respect. In his opinion, after a thorough examination, the motorman became bewildered as the car commenced to travel fast down the incline, and finding himself in a dangerous situation lost his head and turned the current on instead of reducing it.

The revised list of dead is as follows: John Carroll, conductor, Bridgeport; Mrs. Arthur Holmes, Bridgeport; Mrs. Joseph Ruggells, Stratford; Joseph Hotchkiss, Bridgeport; O. B. Wells, Bridgeport; Mrs. Frank Ballou and two children aged 5 and 8 years, Stratford; William H. Harvey and wife, Bridgeport; Daniel Galvin, Ansonia; John Galvin, Ansonia; Bessie Toomey, Bridgeport; Silas E. Bradley and wife, Milford; Sidney A. Pitt, Bridgeport; Peter Ring, Bridgeport; Henry E. Cogswell, Bridgeport; Irving Dorus, Bridgeport; Patrick McDermott and wife, Bridgeport; John A. Flynn, Bridgeport; Thomas McNally, Bridgeport; Willis Osborn, Stratford; Margaret Brennan, Bridgeport; Mrs. McDonald, Bridgeport; Howard Baldwin, Stratford, and two unidentified bodies at Stratford morgue.

Injured: Arthur Holmes, Bridgeport; Fred Hillerkus, Shelton; Charles Delaney, New York; Frank R. Krapp, Bridgeport; Mrs. Sidney A. Pitt, Bridgeport; Matthew Olby, Bloomfield; George Canfield, Derby; William McCullough, Ansonia; Miss Mamie Farrell, New York; John C. Root, Derby; Bertha Rugg, 6; Edwin Rugg, 3.

GANG PLANK BROKE And Over a Score of People Were Drowned and Injured.

Mound Desert Ferry, Me., Aug. 7.—An excursion party for Bar Harbor from various points along the Maine Central railroad met with a terrible accident here, where the train is left for an eight-mile sail to Bar Harbor. By the breaking of a gangplank while the party were embarking 17 persons were drowned and three died from the terrible experience of immersion in the water and injuries while struggling for life.

A careful examination by divers in the vicinity of the accident and investigation on shore by officials of the Maine Central railway and others seems to indicate that the 20 victims reported are all who perished as a result of the catastrophe.

A Mr. Southard of Bangor, who was seriously injured, is not likely to recover, and two other persons are suffering from pneumonia. The others who were hurt are reported as being in a favorable condition.

Stock Over Subscribed. Pittsburgh, Aug. 7.—Whitney and Stephenson, who have been financing the big river coal combine, which is to be known as the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company, have completed the allotment of stock, according to the subscriptions received. The stock was over subscribed by $1,250,000. The first payment by stockholders on par preferred stock is payable at the Union Trust company's offices, this city, on Aug. 21. The remaining 90 per cent is payable on Sept. 21. All properties will be finally transferred on Oct. 1.

Struck on a Rock. Corunna, Spain, Aug. 7.—The British steamer Winthrop, from Newport, July 21, for Lisbon, struck on a rock, it is now learned, while on her way from Huelva, Spain, to Antwerp, and was totally wrecked. Her crew landed safely at Muros in their own boat.

REBELS IN ARMS. Government Troops Go Over to the Insurgents.

Cape Haytien, Hayti, Aug. 7.—General Rablo Reyes, Ramon Pacheco, Clea Navarro, Jos Polo and Jiminez have taken up arms in Santo Domingo in favor of Don Juan Isidro Jiminez and occupy the plains of Chaguai and Curabo as far as Jose de las Matas, as well as the towns of Guayabin, Sabine, Manzanillo and Dajabon, abandoned by the troops of the government of Santo Domingo. More than half these troops are said to have gone over to the camp of General Pacheco, who is reported to have more than 800 well armed men under his command.

General Guilleto, governor of Monte Christi, who, it is claimed, has already lost half his troops, who have gone over to the enemy, is in a desperate position and unable to attack the revolutionists. It is added that he will be obliged to capitulate.

Numbers of Dominicans are arriving in Hayti by sea in order to join, by crossing the frontier, the camp of General Pacheco.

SAILOR THE MURDERER.

An American and Two Japanese Women His Victims.

San Francisco, Aug. 7.—Chief Officer Smith of the Hongkong Mary brings particulars of the murder of R. Nelson Ward, a young American, and two Japanese women by a young sailor named Miller at Yokohama on the morning of July 17. Ward was the son of a wealthy resident of Abingdon, Va., and 23 years of age. His body was found with the head cut off and the ears and a hand and an arm severed. The two Japanese women were also horribly mutilated.

The cause of the murder was jealousy on the part of Miller. The murderer is supposed to have lived at Buffalo. He reached Yokohama on the Shinto, where he deserted. The murder was done in a saloon owned by one of the Japanese women. The murderer will be tried by Japanese law, as the treaty with the United States went into effect before the murders were committed.

To Preserve Order.

Puerto Rico, Santo Domingo, Aug. 7.—Senator Alvarez, the minister of finance, and Señor Cordero, with 100 men, went to Monte Christi. They united there with 700 men who had been assembled in behalf of the government for the restoration of order.

Armed forces are watching the coast to prevent the landing of filibustering expeditions should such a thing be attempted. The governor of Monte Christi has 3,000 men under arms for the preservation of the peace. The situation is considered grave.

Repairing Transports.

San Francisco, Aug. 7.—The transport Hancock is at the Union Iron works undergoing extensive repairs. She is to be entirely overhauled and is to be fitted up similar to the Grant and Sherman. The repairs will cost about $50,000. The hospital ship Relief is also to be repaired at an expense of $30,000. When completed these vessels will be the finest of the transport fleet.

Broke Bread With the Czar.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 7.—M. Delcasse French minister of foreign affairs, had the honor of lunching at Peterhof palace with Emperor Nicholas and the empress. The Russian minister of foreign affairs, Count Muravieff, and several of the chief dignitaries of the Russian court were also guests of their majesties.

Ministerial Crisis Predicted.

Madrid, Aug. 7.—Marshal Martinez de Campos, president of the senate, in an interview just published, predicts a ministerial crisis in November, adding that the ministers of war, marine and justice, General Polaiev, Gomez Imaz and Señor Duran, respectively, will resign.

Situation Improved.

Bombay, Aug. 7.—There has been a slight fall of rain in various parts of western India during the last two days. The monsoon is current again, though not strongly. The situation is somewhat improved.

False Rumor.

Berlin, Aug. 7.—A dispatch received here from Tokyo says there is no truth in the report that the Japanese flag has been hoisted over Wake Island, northwest of the Mariannes.

Indications of a Hurricane.

St. Thomas, D. W. I., Aug. 7.—There are hurricane indications over the area of Martinique, northward, and it is feared the storm may strike some island, probably Guadalupe.

Prominent Business Man Dead.

Indianapolis, Aug. 7.—Frederick Baggs, manager of the Indianapolis Clearing House association, died here. He had been prominent in business for half a century.

GUARDED BY SOLDIERS

Is the Lycee, Where Captain Dreyfus Is Now on Trial.

ENTERED WITH A FIRM STEP.

Prisoner Vehemently Utters Protests of Innocence, and the Judge Grows Impatient at His Direct Denials.

Rennes, Aug. 7.—The proceedings of the court-martial before which Captain Dreyfus is on trial opened at 10 minutes past 7 a.m. Captain Dreyfus entered the courtroom with a firm step, though his features were pallid.

He answered the formal questions of the judge as to his name, age, etc., in a clear, determined voice. He sat facing the judges with his hands resting on his knees, an impassive figure. The trial opened, so far as Rennes is concerned, in an atmosphere of perfect tranquillity. Strong detachments of gendarmes, on foot and mounted, began to arrive at 6 o'clock and took up their positions in the side streets around the Lycee. A detachment of infantry was drawn across the avenue in two double lines, leaving between them a passage for Captain Dreyfus across the avenue from the military prison to the entrance to the Lycee.

When Dreyfus, wearing eyeglasses, rose from his seat for examination, he stood erect, holding his kepi in his hand before him. He looked Colonel Jouaust in the face during the whole interrogatory. Colonel Jouaust began by saying:

"It results from the documents just read that you are accused of having brought about machinations or held relations with a foreign power or one or more of its agents in order to procure it means, by delivering it documents indicated in the incriminating bourse, to commit hostilities or undertake war against France. I notify you that you will be allowed to state during the course of these proceedings anything that appears to you useful for your defense."

Dreyfus replied with a vehement declaration of his innocence, repeating several times: "I am innocent," in a voice which quivered with emotion. The agonized manner in which he uttered his protestations of innocence had a most painful effect and must have evoked the sympathy even of the most inveterate enemies.

Judge Grows Impatient.

Colonel Jouaust submitted Dreyfus to a rigorous examination, more in the style of a prosecuting counsel than a judge, and made gestures of impatience at some direct denials, which Dreyfus gave repeatedly to the judge's questions. The prisoner's voice resounded frequently through the courtroom, as he energetically replied:

"No, my colonel," or "Never, never," to questions put to him.

Jouaust—At the end of 1894 had you knowledge of information sent to Lieutenant Bac by the bureau on the effectiveness of the batteries of gun 120?

Dreyfus—No.

Jouaust, with a movement of impatience—This is astonishing. The bureaus know what documents pass from one to the other.

Dreyfus—What I say is correct.

Jouaust—I turn to the fourth document, a note referring to Madagascar. There are two papers. A corporal who copied them saw you pass through his office going to the colonel's room.

Dreyfus—I went through occasionally.

Jouaust—You could have obtained this document from the corporal's desk.

Dreyfus—This is not usual.

Jouaust—No; but it could be done. The copying was finished on the 28th and the bourse dates from several days later. Now for the fifth document—the proposed firing manual for field artillery. Did you know the contents of the manual?

Dreyfus, emphatically—Never.

Jouaust—A witness says you communicated it to him.

Dreyfus—No, never.

Jouaust—A major lent this firing manual to you?

Dreyfus—No, my colonel. I deny it absolutely.

Dreyfus then entered into an explanation of dates, but his memory failed him.

Jouaust—at the military school you were reproached with saying the Alsacians were happier as Germans than as Frenchmen?

Dreyfus—No, I never uttered such words.

Jouaust—How do you account for the bad note against you, written by a certain general?

Dreyfus—He said he wanted no Jews on the general staff.

Jouaust—How did you know what he said?

Dreyfus—Through conversations. Colonel Jouaust then spoke of the interview with Du Paty de Clam and Dreyfus replied:

"I never confessed anything to Du Paty de Clam."

Here occurred one of the most dramatic scenes in the examination. Dreyfus, tremendously excited, swayed to and fro for a moment and then all his pent-up emotion and indignation burst forth and he cried in a piercing voice heard throughout the court and even by those standing outside:

"It is iniquitous to condemn an innocent man. I never confessed anything; never!"

MILITARY RELIEVED Police of Cleveland Will Cope With Disturbances.

Cleveland, Aug. 7.—For the first time in over two weeks this city is practically without military protection. All of the troops were relieved from guard duty. Two of the six Fourth regiment companies now guarding the barns of the Big Consolidated Street Railway company were relieved from duty entirely. The other four companies were withdrawn from the barns to the central armory.

The withdrawal of the troops leaves the civil authorities to again cope with any disturbances that may take place. More people apparently used the Big Consolidated cars in order to reach the business portion of the city than on any day since the present strike began.

Colored Masons.

Cleveland, Aug. 7.—The annual session of the United Supreme Council of colored thirty-third degree Masons of the United States began here, with delegates present from nearly all the states in the union. During the meeting two commissioners will be elected who will visit Paris and other foreign countries for the purpose of gaining recognition for colored Masons. A plan will also be inaugurated for the erection of a home for the benefit of the widows and orphans of colored Masons.

Exploded the Bomb.

Ashtabula, O., Aug. 7.—A 10-year-old boy picked up a package near M. A. Hanna & Company's office on the Ashtabula docks and threw it against a stump. The contents exploded, blowing the stump to atoms and so badly lacerating the boy's hand that amputation may be necessary. Who placed the dynamite where it was found and why it was left there are mysteries.

The Blow or the Fall?

Dayton, O., Aug. 7.—George Stine, a moulder, died at the Third precinct police station from the effect of a fractured skull, caused by a fall in front of Mrs. Margaret Kreis' saloon on West Fifth street. Inquiry developed the information that Stine was struck by a man named Frank Straub, who attended bar for Mrs. Kreis, the force of the blow felling him to the sidewalk.

New Incorporations.

Columbus, O., Aug. 7.—The Portsmouth Gas company, Portsmouth, capital stock $200,000; the Lockland Lumber company, Lockland, increase of capital stock from $100,000 to $150,000; the T. G. Mouat company, Cleveland, capital stock $10,000; the Gas and Electric Light Mutual Aid Association of Cincinnati, O.

Chosen Commandant.

Gambier, O., Aug. 7.—Lieutenant Colonel Henry Thompson, of Fort McPherson, Alabama, has been chosen commandant of the Kenyon Military academy for the ensuing year. He was a distinguished officer in the Spanish-American war.

Interests Identical.

Washington, Aug. 7.—The reported indignity to an American citizen at Johannesburg, South Africa, arising out of his being mistaken for a Kaffir, has not been reported to the state department, and the view prevails among officials that it is hardly likely to assume an international aspect. The relations between the British colonists of South Africa and the Americans in that quarter have been of the most satisfactory character, so much so that their interests have been regarded as alike in the recent controversy over the rights of the outlanders in the Transvaal. For this reason the incident at Johannesburg is felt by officials here to be exceptional and in no way indicative of hostility to Americans.

Jouaust—at the military school you were reproached with saying the Alsacians were happier as Germans than as Frenchmen?

Dreyfus—No, I never uttered such words.

Jouaust—How do you account for the bad note against you, written by a certain general?

Dreyfus—He said he wanted no Jews on the general staff.

REVERED AS A SAINT

Is the Mexican Woman Responsible For the Yaqui Outbreak.

LEADER IN FORMER EMEUTE.

Her Followers Believe Her to Be Divinely Inspired and to Possess the Power of Healing the Sick.

Texas, Aug. 7.—Santa Teresa, the Mexican woman who has long been revered as a saint by the natives of Chihuahua and Sonora, and who is believed to possess the power of healing the sick by the laying on of the hands, is believed to be more or less responsible for the present outbreak among the Yaqui Indians.

George Harold, an old Texas ranger, now a policeman of El Paso, says he is confident that Santa Teresa is responsible for the outbreak. Harold was one of the officers who rounded up the ringleaders that raided the Mexican custom house at Palomas, Chihuahua, a few years ago.

"Santa Teresa," he says, "was implicated in that rebellion, which was crushed in its incipiency. Every one of the enemy captured on this side of the line had a picture of the woman in his possession and on the back of her picture was inscribed one of her prayers."

WEATHER FORECAST FOR KENTUCKY—Showers and thunderstorms Tuesday and Wednesday, preceded by fair in eastern portion Tuesday; high temperature, northerly to easterly winds.

A BILL that will, if adopted, change Kentucky's election system entirely, will be introduced in the next Legislature. It will embody the views of Hon. R. C. Talbott, of Paris, which were recently published at length in the Bulletin's editorial columns.

THE TRUST A PUBLIC ENEMY. Hon. J. J. Ingalls, former U. S. Senator from Kansas, once a prominent Republican, noted for his caustic tongue, discusses the trusts in a recent letter to the New York Journal:

The action of the Window Glass Trust last week will not tend to allay the irritation between labor and capital, nor to mitigate public judgment when the day of reckoning comes. Window glass is the vehicle of light and air; the indispensable minister of life in the hotel and the palace. Having a capital of $30,000,000, it began its nefarious work of decreasing the price of glass until the independent concerns were crushed. Having thus cleared the field of rivals, it proceeded to restrict production so that the demand might exceed the supply, in order to advance prices and increase profit by grinding the consumer.

The edict was issued a few days ago and all the factories in the country, with the exception of a few co-operative concerns, were shut down simultaneously for an indefinite period, and 17,000 workmen, skilled and unskilled, representing through their families a population of not less than 50,000 men, women and children, were thrown out of employment and left to shift or starve.

This trust is a public enemy. It deliberately raises the price of one of the staples of every community for the selfish purpose of increasing its unlawful gains. It destroys competition. It restricts trade. It menaces the life and health of its employees. It should be outlawed, so that its members and its property could be dealt with as we deal with the rattlesnake, the tiger and the mad dog.

The laws are ample for the destruction of such monsters, but their penalties are not invoked.

We all know why; as we know why Capt. Oberlin M. Carter, a convicted felon, who disgraced the army and disdained the flag, is still at large, drawing pay and rendering no service.

By and by the lamp post and the torch!

What Goebel Has Done.

[Fulton Leader.]

Goebel's opposers in denouncing him forgot to tell the people that he introduced and passed a bill reducing the tolls for foot passengers to one cent across the Covington and Cincinnati bridge; a bill repealing the charters of the State lotteries of Kentucky; a bill making gambling a felony; a bill empowering cities of the second class to establish and maintain free public libraries; that through his influence were passed the China School Book bill, a bill regulating the cost of school books, and the McChord Railroad bill, a bill requiring the railroads to base their freight charges on the amount of work done, and not on competition they may have. They might also say that he never smoked a cigar, chewed tobacco or took a drink of intoxicating liquor in his life.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and I thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at J. Jas. Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded.

The Mayor reported $49.94 as amount of license collected during the past month.

Permits were granted as follows:

Elli M. Greenlee; to erect a coal shed on Third street, First ward.
J. N. Kehoe; to erect a one-story brick kitchen addition to his residence on West Second street.
The Ohio Valley Pulley Works; to erect a two-story frame, metal roof factory building, a one-story brick metal roof building together with necessary outbuildings on Central avenue and Main and Walnut streets, Sixth ward.
W. R. Archdeacon; to erect a two-story brick addition to property lately purchased on Third street, near Market.
The City Attorney was authorized to bring suit to collect back taxes from the estate of the late Dennis McGregor.

President Duley, of the Board of Trade, appeared and asked Council to exempt the Ohio Valley Pulley Works from taxation for the period of five years, to aid the company in re-establishing its business.

He felt that all that was necessary was simply to make the request. The Mayor called his attention to the Constitution which authorizes Council to exempt manufacturing establishments and the machinery, but not the capital stock, from taxation, and that this must be done by ordinance. On motion, unanimously adopted, the Laws and Ordinance Committee was directed to prepare and report at next meeting an ordinance granting the exemption.

Geo. C. McMurry's coffee house license at the St. Charles Hotel was transferred to Hopper & Hunter.

Poynt Bros. were granted license to conduct a retail liquor business on Wall street.

Mr. James H. Rains appeared and asked Council to repair a break in a sewer on the old Maddox property, back of the jail. But the question was raised that the sewer is a private one and the city might eventually get a big suit on her hands for damages, if Council assumed control of this sewer. The matter was referred to City Attorney to investigate.

The question of improving Patton alley, between Front and Second streets, was referred to the Committee on Internal Improvement to get consent of the abutting property owners if possible and report at next meeting.

Mr. N. Cooper is willing to pave the alley with brick, at his own cost, provided the city will put down a gutter three or four feet wide in the center.

The Water Committee and the Mayor and City Attorney were authorized to write to the owners of the water works in regard to the extension of the mains on Forest avenue.

The Water Committee reported that contract had been let to John W. Quick of Manchester for sinking an artesian well on Short street, between Second and Third, at $110. Unless a good supply of water is obtained at a depth of eighty feet, he is to go deeper, the cost to be 65 cents a foot. Mr. Tolle called attention to the fact that by purchasing small suction pumps the various public cisterns located throughout the city could be utilized in providing drinking water, the pumps to be located on sidewalk, near the cisterns. He stated that a pump of this kind would cost about $6, and that by cleaning the cisterns and then filling them in the winter nice cool water could be provided all the people living near these cisterns.

The Committee on Internal Improvement was directed to fill up the deep gutter on south side of Second street from Union to Dr. Pangburn's.

Mr. Heiser, Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, reported he settled with the Bank of Maysville, the Union Trust Company and Mitchell, Finch & Co.'s Bank for this year's taxes, as follows:

Bank of Maysville.....	$833 33
Union Trust Co.....	450 00
Mitchell, Finch & Co.....	278 48

Total..... $1,561 81

Five bonds each for $500 were ordered issued and sold to provide funds for current expenses.

An order was directed to be drawn for $2,187.50 in favor of Bank of Maysville to pay interest on city bonds.

R. P. Thompson was granted permit to tap the sewer on Second street, Sixth ward, for purpose of draining his cellar.

The Chief of Police was directed to have warrants issued for all persons who have received written notice to repair pavements and have failed to do so in a reasonable time.

The Fire Committee was authorized to purchase, a Siamese hydrant gate for Washington Fire Company. With this arrangement additional streams can be thrown from a hydrant and the gate is so arranged that one stream can be cut off without interfering with the others.

JUDGE WHITAKER.

Another Prominent and Honored Citizen Joins the Silent Majority.

The End Came Suddenly Shortly After 10 O'Clock Last Night—Sketch of the Deceased.

The community was shocked this morning by the sad news of the sudden death of Hon. Emery Whitaker.

The end came about 10:30 o'clock last night at the family residence on the Lexington pike, his death resulting from paralysis of the brain.

Judge Whitaker had been sick about two weeks, but it was not generally known that he was ill. At first he suffered from a slight attack of rheumatism, and this was followed by an attack of pleurisy. His son, Dr. Emery Whitaker, of Covington, who was visiting him, called Dr. Browning in consultation, and under their treatment he had, apparently, been improving. Monday he felt better than he had for several days, and last evening about 8 o'clock he fell into a peaceful sleep. About 10 o'clock he aroused from his slumber, inquired the time and when told the hour remarked that they had let him sleep too long. These were about his last words. A few minutes later there was a sudden change for the worse, and he sank into an unconscious condition from which he never rallied, quietly breathing his last about 10:30. Dr. Browning had been hastily summoned, but death had claimed his patient before he reached the home.

When first stricken two weeks ago, Judge Whitaker had a premonition that his end was near, and remarked to Dr. Browning that he would not get well.

Judge Emery Whitaker was a native of Sullivan Co., N. H., and was born December 19th, 1816. His parents, Emery and Mary (Colston) Whitaker, were natives of New Hampshire and Vermont, and of English and Scotch origin. He came to Maysville in 1840, and taught school for some time, reading law in the meantime. In 1844 he was admitted to the bar; in 1849 was elected to the State Legislature, and in 1851 was elected County Judge, which office he held until September, 1862. In 1869 he was chosen State Senator, serving four years, being Chairman of the Committee on Banks and Insurance, and was largely instrumental in passing the insurance law of that period.

December 21st, 1847, he married Miss Kerilla Lamb, a native of this county and daughter of John and Lucy (Porter) Lamb, the latter a cousin of General Wm. Smith, of Virginia. John Lamb's father (William) was among the first settlers of Mason County, and for a while lived in a fort at Washington; he was the first Sheriff of the county and subsequently served in the Legislature. To this marriage were born John L. and Emery C., both of whom survive, with their mother.

Judge Whitaker, in addition to the above offices of trust and honor, had served as Chairman of the State Board of Equalization, and represented Mason County in the last Constitutional convention. He was one of the best known and most successful members of the Maysville bar, and the news of his death will be learned with regret by a wide circle of friends.

The bar will meet at the court house at 2 o'clock this afternoon to take appropriate action on his death.

Judge Whitaker was an old member of the Christian Church and the funeral will take place Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence, Rev. W. W. Hall officiating. Burial in the Maysville Cemetery.

BALLINGER,

JEWELER AND OPTICIAN.

A HEADQUARTERS detective is investigating a case which is not only peculiar but pathetic. The story was reported by Miss Kittle Turner, the charming young daughter of George W. Turner, deceased. At the time of his death Mr. Turner held the position of assistant city constable. He overworked himself during the recent smallpox epidemic and finally contracted a cold, which resulted in his death. Naturally his death was a great shock to his widow. Some two years ago Mrs. Turner gave a tintype photograph of her husband to one of those "photo enlarging" companies. It was the best picture she had of her husband. When she received the enlarged picture she was not satisfied with it and returned it. Since then she has been trying to secure the tintype again. It was not until after her husband's death that she made a decided effort to recover the tintype, but the company paid no attention to her repeated requests. She wants the police to aid her in recovering the picture.

A SUCCESSFUL STUDENT.

Miss Bessie Taylor, a Native of This City, Ranks First in the Courier-Journal's Home Study Circle.

Readers of the Louisville Courier-Journal of Saturday may have noticed an article headed "Successful Students." That paper had just sent out certificates to the successful ones of those who had taken part in the "Courier-Journal's Home Study Circle," conducted in the paper since last spring.

The studies are divided into six classes, as follows: "Popular Studies in European History," "The World's Great Commercial Products," "Governments of the World of To-day," "Popular Studies in Literature," "The World's Great Artists."

Among those contesting for certificates, which were of three classes,—"excellent, good and fair," was Miss Bessie Taylor, of Oakland, Warren County, a native of this city. She came out successful in all five of her contests, her papers being declared "excellent" on the subjects treated.

No other contestant among the 100 came near equaling her, while on one of the subjects she had the only paper, with one exception, which latter was only pronounced "good," while hers attained the excellent mark.

Miss Taylor is well known in this county and first saw the light of day in this city in 1874. She has always been a diligent and painstaking student and has attained proficiency through hard work and self-denial. She is the youngest sister of the brilliant and talented Dr. Robert N. Taylor.

Electric Park.

Quite a crowd greeted the Eldons and Whyte and Beckett in the opening performance last evening, and all went away well pleased. Whyte and Beckett certainly justified the good reputation which they bear. Miss Beckett is one of the most finished and graceful dancers ever seen here, and Mr. Whyte sings his own pleasing compositions in a voice of rare excellence. The Eldons in their comedy sketch, "Trouble in a Chinese Wash House," kept the audience in laughter and their work as shadowgraphists is clever to the last degree.

In addition to the regular program to-night, the Maysville Orchestra will render the following numbers in their usual first-class style:

Sheep Eat Tobacco.

[Lexington Gazette.]

Many curious things are constantly occurring, but none more remarkable than this, reported and vouched for from the Floral neighborhood. Mr. Josh Glover is one of the best tobacco raisers in that section, and he avers that a flock of sheep, belonging to a neighbor, in some way gained entrance to his growing tobacco patch, and before detected had devoured—actually eaten up—more than an acre of his tobacco. They would begin at the top and eat down. This is certainly a remarkable statement, but it can be substantiated by other and good men besides Mr. Glover.

IN MEMORIAM.

Surrounded by loved ones, Miss Margaret W. Deasy, after a protracted illness, died at her home on West Third street, Aug. 2nd, 1899. She was born 1824. Thus we see the dear Father in Heaven spared this good Christian woman seventy-five years to bless and comfort her friends and family.

She was a niece of the late Wilson Wood in whose house she made her home from her childhood. She was to him a well beloved dutiful affectionate daughter. In her home she was full of love and help, her kind helpful elder sister looked up to, and giving trustful sympathy, wisest counsel. But this useful, helpful life has closed; but the beautiful record she left will live on through time and eternity, still influencing those left behind. Dear sister, friend, you have played your part faithfully and well on the stage of life. The scene has closed. The cares and joys of this life are ended. Rest and peace are yours forevermore. We shall miss your loving sympathy, your wise counsel. But we rejoice in the thoughts of joy eternal that comes to us as a reward for your faithfulness here, and we pray when the summons comes to us, that we shall be ready to meet your pure spirit in the beautiful city of God.
